Sittin' on a riverboat Havin' a party

E

She's turnin' twenty-one on the Mississippi river

A

Me and my Cajun Queen

B7

Headin' down to New Orleans

- Chords as above throughout -

The year is 1894

Her dark eyes flash like a gambler's rings

Oh come on mama and love me some more

She shakes her pretty head and sings

Life for me is a riverboat fantasy

A rock and roll band with a reefer in my hand

Watchin'the sun go down

Now look at that wheel go around

Cocaine kisses and moonshine Misses

I'm sailing away from my heartache

That's the life for me

On a riverboat fantasy

Can't think, can't drink Anymore whisky

This old boat she's Just sittin' in the moonlight

I could'a drunk a river dry Mmm...

Catchin' the gleam in her eye

Showers of rain come pourin' down

Shimmer, glimmer I think I'm gonna fall

The sky full of stars Like a french lace gown

Woops catch me mama, that's all

Life for me is a riverboat fantasy

A rock and roll band With a reefer in my hand

Watchin' the sun go down

Now look at that wheel go around

Cocaine kisses and moonshine Misses

I'm sailing away from my heartache

That's the life for me

On a riverboat fantasy

Delta sun beats down like a hammer

I've got a cotton gin I'll weave and spin

Mmmm.... It gives the low down blues

And shake the dust from my shoes

I made my money I found me a honey

When morning comes I'll ride into town

To tickle me under my chin

And worry about the shape I'm in

Life for me is a riverboat fantasy

A rock and roll band With a reefer in my hand

Watchin' the sun go down

Now look at that wheel go around

Cocaine kisses and moonshine Misses

Yes it is I'm sailing away from my heartache

That's the life for me

On a riverboat fantasy
